

Very well done homework.

You did not only complete the task requirements but also added extra (I think not many of us tried Sarsa with different number of steps, let alone MC with exploring starts) effort to try out the code in different settings.

The visualizations of the evaluation were amazing and clear.

The code is written in a very advanced approach and easy to follow.

There was no issues when running the code.

Excellent work, good job!